

Here is how to format your MLA cover page:

- This page is double-spaced and the letters are centered.
- Type the name of your university, college, or high school.
- One-third of the page down: type your research paper title (include a subtitle if you wish)
- Skip 8 lines and type your name(s), your course name, your instructor name and your paper's due date.

If your instructor requires a cover page, you should omit the main heading on your first page. Here is an example of the first page if a cover page is used. You still need your last name and page number on the first page and every other page.
